HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore, easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

EASTERN DATES TO JUNE 1.

Washington News in General

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The Northern Pacific Railroad bill and the bill to enforce the Fifteenth Amendment, have been signed by the President.

The Banking and Currency Committee have agreed to press $95,000,000 to the House though with no idea of passing it.

The Secretary of the Treasury has given permission to Hutchinson & Co., of San Francisco, to send the steamer Alexander to the seal islands of Alaska to bring the skins of last year's catch to San Francisco, subject to order of the Treasury Department.

The Government has information that a first class European Power, possessing only a few sea ports, has offered the Dominican Government $2,000,000 for the Bay of Samana, in case the treaty with the United States is not ratified.

The coming city election causes much excitement. The vote will be larger than heretofore. The bitterness of the contest is violent. Precautions will be taken to preserve peace.

CHICAGO, June 1.—The Tribune's Washington special says the Gentiles of Utah have a representative here to get an act passed incorporating with a small land grant, a company to open an irrigating ditch about twenty miles long, from a point in Bear River Canyon down by Corinne to Salt Lake. The land grant is four sections to the mile, and the capital stock of the company a quarter of a million dollars.

The Conference Committee on the income tax bill to-day agreed upon a report. It provides for a continuation of the tax as at present through the present year, the law to remain in force till the tax is collected next spring. It also legalizes the action of officials in collecting tax on salaries since 1st of January.

To-morrow the enumeration for the census begins. Blanks sufficient for beginning the work were sent from the office here in time to reach California and Oregon, and no delay is expected in any quarter from a failure of the supply of blanks as fast as needed.

A Times' special says the President to-day transmitted to the Senate a brief confidential message on the San Domingo treaty, inclosing an additional article extending the time for the ratification to July 1st. He suggests certain amendments which he deems it advisable the Senate should incorporate into the treaty. In these amendments it is proposed that the paragraph giving the United States a lien upon the public lands of the Republic as security for its unfunded debt shall be stricken out, and that the sum proposed to be paid for the island—a million and a half—shall be absolutely the entire amount to be paid by this government. It is also proposed that two commissioners shall be appointed, one by the Dominican government and one by the United States to receive this money and apply it to the extinguishment of the Dominican debt.

It was decided at a Cabinet meeting to-day, to hold a grand Indian peace conference Monday next. It was further decided that all Fenians under arrest shall be tried in the United States Courts for violating the neutrality laws.

Congressional.

In the Senate, Sumner reported a bill incorporating Cyrus W. Field and others, as a Pacific Submarine Telegraph Company, in accordance with the plan of the memorialists.

The Senate was engaged five hours on the Sandwich Island reciprocity treaty. Sumner made an elaborate speech for ratification. Corbett briefly followed on the same side, and Sherman against it, for financial reasons. Chandler spoke against it. The debate took a wide range, revolving around the general question of making such treaties, and is likely to last some time longer. No question taken to-day in the Senate.

At the evening session the bill supplying deficiencies in appropriations for the compensation of members of the houses, was amended by adding $110,000 for the collection of customs; $20,000 to enable the Secretary of the Treasury to pay for special counsel. Passed.

Stewart called up the House joint resolution for the suspension of the sale of certain lands in California granted to the Southern Pacific Railroad of California. Passed.

Several minor Indian treaties were rejected in an open session of the Senate.

Congressional Election in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, S. C., June 1.—An election for Member of Congress, in place of B. B. Whittemore, resigned, was held in the 1st District of this State to-day. The candidates were Whittemore and Dunn, both claiming to be Republicans, Rainey, a colored citizen, who had been a candidate, having withdrawn from the contest in favor of Whittemore and Dunn. Returns, which are meagre, indicate the election of Whittemore.

Arrest of Fenians.

MALONE, June 1.—There is great excitement over the arrest of Major Fitz Patrick of New York, and Col. McNeil, second of the principal Fenian officers who have heretofore eluded officials. They were confined in the guard house, and will probably be arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Benson to-day.

NEW YORK, June 1.—A special says the Government officials at Malone wound up the war yesterday by arresting the New York newspaper reporters as Fenians and sending them to prison.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Superintendent of Police Jourdan announces that hereafter he will refuse to make arrests on the authority of telegrams from distant points unless full particulars as to name, offense and authority for apprehension are given. The Superintendent assigns as a reason for this decision that these telegrams have frequently been sent without consultation with the authorities and have caused arrests and detention without sufficient cause.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Rudolphe was winner of the billiard match, 1,500 up, by fifteen points. It was a very exciting game and fair play. Dion, after running 150 in the fifty-fourth inning, missed with 15 points to go, and Rudolphe, who had 1,471, ran the game out in the fifty-fifth inning.

PROVIDENCE, May 31.—The Legislature organized with Republican officers. Senator Anthony was nominated for re-election.

CONCORD, N. H., May 31.—The Legislature meets to-morrow. Wheeler, Republican, will be elected Speaker of the House.

RICHMOND, May 31.—The conservative candidates declined to accept offices, as the legal investigation shows their election depends upon throwing out the vote of a precinct where the ballot box was stolen.

COLUMBUS, O., May 31.—Every train is bringing delegates to the Democratic State Convention to be held to-morrow. Vallandigham and other prominent leaders are here. There does not seem to be much interest manifested in reference to candidates. All appears to center on the platform to be adopted. A strong force is here in sisting on a repudiation plank.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, May 31.—The troops had a skirmish with a band of rebels near Mangua. The insurgents killed five volunteers and one Spanish soldier at Montesio, near Palma. The planters and others are holding meetings in Havana to discuss the proposed abolition of slavery. The steamer for Cadiz yesterday took a number of memorials on the subject to the Cabinet and Cortes.

BY THE CABLE.

LIVERPOOL, May 31.—The steamer City of R[illegible] leaves this afternoon for New York. She is only twenty [illegible] feet long, and is provisioned for three months. The Captain counts on making the passage inside of fifty days. The crew consists of one man beside the Captain. New York is her nominal point of destination, [illegible] the Captain will make any convenient [illegible] in the United States. A large crowd witnessed [illegible] departure.

LONDON, May 31.—The Daily News [illegible] an international copyright treaty between Great Britain and the United States.

The proposed race between the Tyne [illegible] and the St. John crew will be rowed in September on the St. Lawrence. The prize is [illegible] and the course six miles.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 1.—The Boston excursion train did not reach the foot of Montgomery street until twenty minutes to one o'clock this morning. They were received with cheers by a large crowd and many friends called on the excursionists immediately.

Col. Alf. F. Dudley and his son Alfred on one side and his son-in-law Edward Ingham on the other had a disgraceful series of fights in the Cosmopolitan Saloon last night, during which Dudley stabbed Ingham in the left side, inflicting a slight wound. The elder Dudley drew a bowie-knife in the melee. James Miller, who was endeavoring to separate the combatants, received several cuts in the head and side, and another outsider, named Cunningham, slightly cut. The party was finally ejected from the premises, and Dudley and son having been disarmed, surrendered themselves voluntarily to the police. The feud is a family affair of long standing. It is said Ingham charged his father-in-law with endeavoring to get him dismissed from the mint, and beat him severely in the face before a knife or pistol was drawn.

The body of an infant, which had been run over by a wagon and crushed to a shapeless mass, was found in the street yesterday. Owners wanted.

One thousand one hundred and thirty-five arrests were made by the police last month.

Henry B. Livingstone, one of the oldest newspaper men on the Pacific coast, has been appointed Census Marshal of the eighteenth ward of this city.

The Fenian State Council paid back all the money subscribed for prosecuting the late war with Great Britain and Canada, and incorporated the 150 volunteers enrolled into the army of the Irish Republic as Company C.

The Democratic County Commissioners indefinitely postponed the resolution voting a subsidy to the Southern Pacific Railroad, leaving all voters to act as they please on the proposition.

The Citizens' Independent Political Association have elected officers as follows for the ensuing year: President, H. L. Marcuse; First Vice President, Jno. Halley; Second, H. L. Calvins; Secretary, Geo. Hauck; Corresponding Secretary, W. T. Beatty; Treasurer, P. Brannan; Sergeant-at-Arms, Chas. Berry. The following resolution was adopted:

WHEREAS, This Association was organised for the purpose of elevating good men that will maintain good laws and the Government independent of party machinery, and to take any action on public questions that is not in violation of law; and whereas, the question of appropriating $1,000,000 to the Southern Pacific Railroad is of vital importance to the taxpayers of this city and county, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Association is opposed to said appropriation.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The steamer Orisaba, which came in this morning from southern coast ports, was obliged to take shelter several hours under land at San Luis Obispo. The gale is described as one of the hardest that has been encountered the present year. The gale is now abating.

Yesterday a couple of thieves visited a house on Lynch street. While the lady who observed their movements was absent, they entered, and before they returned with assistance they decamped, taking $20 and a gold chain, buckle and breastpin.

At the distribution of property of the Ben Franklin homestead, on Tuesday evening, less than one half the lots were disposed of, reducing the premium amount over $1,100.

Assessor Badlam has fixed the rate of legal tenders for Revenue statements during the current month at 51¼ cents.

The Bostonians are enjoying themselves. A grand ball will be tendered them under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce. After remaining a few days in the city the excursionists will proceed to Yosemite, Big Trees, Calistoga, New Almaden, Geysers, etc.

This afternoon Capt. Grant met Ed. F. Dudley, one of the participants in the fight at the Cosmopolitan last evening, and finding him and his brother-in-law, Geo. Ingham, willing to let bygones be bygones and drop the trouble, brought together the late belligerents, who drank together, and after a little friendly conversation, started out to find Dudley, Sr., and have the difficulty settled at once. They had gone but a short distance when Ingham suddenly, without any apparent cause, drew an old fashioned Colt's dragoon revolver and fired twice at young Dudley, missing him both times. Dudley ran behind a team and the second shot went through the buggy in which Kimball, carriage builder, was riding, narrowly missing him. The affray took place on Montgomery street near Bush, when the sidewalks were crowded with pedestrians and the streets filled with teams, creating great excitement. Ingham was arrested on a charge of assault with intent to murder. His bail was fixed at $5,000.

IMPOSITION UPON PASSENGERS.—A correspondent of the Union (J. C. Fairbank,) writing from Winnemucca, May 20th, and who is of an assured character for truthfulness, furnishes the following statements, which present a case of great hardship. The facts elicited are disgraceful to the present railroad management on this end of the Overland route.

"I wish to call the attention of the Union and the public generally to the imposition practiced upon passengers coming from the East to California by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, in taking from them their through tickets at Ogden and giving them transfer tickets over the Central Pacific Railroad good for five to eight days only, when if by chance or accident they are compelled to lay over a few days their tickets are forfeited, and they are compelled to pay their fare again or be put off the cars. Several instances have occurred here where parties have been detained on business or sickness only a week, when to get through they have been compelled to pay their fare again, to go through, and having their tickets that they had purchased in their pockets. One instance especially deserves particular attention: Steeree, from Illinois, en route for San Francisco, a few days ago, purchased a through ticket in Omaha. At Ogden he was given a transfer ticket good for five days over the Central Pacific Railroad. At Elko or before arriving at Elko, Steeree was taken violently sick, and was compelled to stop; and not being able to resume his journey for some five or six days (during which time Steeree's doctor bills and other expenses had taken what little money he had,) when he took his seat in the cars and explained his case to the gentlemanly conductor he was politely informed that his ticket was "no good;" that he must pay his fare or get off the cars, which he was compelled to do. Having no money nor any friends on the Humboldt, Steeree started out on foot, sick and feeble as he was, to make the balance of his journey, 500 miles, some days only being able to walk ten to twelve miles. He stayed at my house on the night of the 13th, on his long, tedious journey, having his ticket which he had paid for to take him through."

AUSTRALIAN GOLD.—The value of the Australian gold imported into Great Britain in 1869 was $[illegible]0,163,785, an increase of $4,515,815 over 1868, and of $10,457,550 over 1767. This year commences with a receipt of $3,766,525 for January, a large increase over preceding years. The opening of new gold-fields in New Zealand, Queensland, and Tasmania has contributed to the increase during past years. Recent official returns show that 2,657 distinct quartz-veins have been proved to be auriferous in Victoria, and in the same date, 881 square miles of gold-fields were worked, and the value of gold mining claims was estimated at $44,347,520. The gold production of Victoria in 1868 is given at 1,657,195 of which about one-third was from quartz-veins.

CURRENT NOTES.

Chinamen of San Jose have engaged the services of a Chinese lawyer, who was educated at a law school in England, and who will defend their interests in all cases in which they may be concerned.

A novelty has reached London, which is said to be an invention the cleverness of which is unquestionable. Without any necromantic tricks, an optical delusion, pure and simple, is produced. To all appearance a link is seen to traverse the whole length of a chain, but it does not fall off, and whence it comes or whither it goes are inexplorable mysteries.

At a recent scientific meeting held at the New York Medical University, a paper was read upon a new method of treating cancer. The discovery consists in applying to the surface of the sore the chloride of chromium—a new salt of this rare metal incorporated into stramonium ointment. This preparation, in a few hours, converts the tumor into perfect carbon, and it crumbles away. Specimens of cancers thus carbonized were inspected by a number of physicians present, which had the appearance of charcoal, and were easily pulverised between the fingers. The remedy causes little or no pain, and is not poisonous.

The total colored vote of the United States is estimated roughly at about 800,000. Of these 700,000 are at the South. The rest are chiefly in the States of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Massachusetts. We have just seen that this vote had no effect in securing New York from the Democracy. In Pennsylvania the case will be different, and probably Ohio will by this addition to the Republican party be made for its candidates. The negro vote will, of course carry all the Southern States which ever way it may go; and hereafter (strange as it may seem) the Southern States promise to be the most ultra Republican. So far as the popular vote is concerned the negroes hold a national balance of political power more than twice as great as the popular majority given to Grant in 1868.

Mrs Ames thus sketches the General of our Armies and his brother, the Senator, in her last letter to the Independent: General Sherman sits erect on the sofa outside this cloak-room, looking not a whit crazier than his clear-eyed, fine-faced brother, who sits beside him. It is a study to trace the natural likeness between these two faces and the unlikeness of physical development wrought in one by the march of war, and in the other by the sedentary pursuits of legislative life. General Sherman has a very likeable face. It is florid and scraggy, bluff, yet most kind. His blue eyes have a friendly twinkle. You are sure that his voice, if a little rough, would sound pleasanter to you than many a softer one, because full of sincere if briefy friendliness. Senator Sherman is thinner and fairer, than his brother—appears a man of books and thought rather than of action. From his eyes looks forth a clear and large intelligence, and the expression of his wide mouth is at once firm and benevolent. Fixed and unyielding in his convictions, he never utters them with ill temper or violence. In the sharpest debate, as in the quietest parlor, he is always a gentleman. And, believing the true gentleman to be the highest type of man, it is not in my power to offer him a sincerer or a truer compliment.

The Executive Committee appointed by the St Louis Convention last fall issue a call for another Convention to work for the removal of the National Capital from Washington to the West. This one is to assemble at Cincinnati on the 25th of next October. The call sets forth the usual arguments in favor of removal—centrality of position; defensibility against a foreign enemy; that the Mississippi valley must soon contain three-fourths of the whole population and wealth of the United States; that it will constitute the political balance of power, etc. Among the signers are Gov. William Gilpin, of Colorado; C. H. Hempstead, of Utah; Gov. Warmouth, of Louisiana; Judge Caton, of Illinois, and other prominent gentlemen, representing nearly all the States west of the Alleghanies. One of their arguments most worthy of note, as manifesting an aspiration of the West and Southwest, of recent birth, is that the Mississippi valley must soon become the great center of manufacturing industry, when Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Minnesota will convert their own iron ores into fabrics of iron and steel, and the Southwest will refuse to depend on Old and New England for their cotton goods, and erect a cheaper and better system of her own, thus saving the cost of transporting the raw material thousands of miles, while utilizing home labor to the greatest possible advantage.

WHAT BREAKS DOWN YOUNG MEN.—The Scientific American of a recent date, has the following:

It is a commonly received notion that hard study is the unhealthy element of a college life. But from the tables of mortality of Harvard University, collected by Professor Pierce, from the last triennial catalogue, it is clearly demonstrated that the excess of death for the first ten years after graduation, is found in that portion of each class of inferior scholarship. Every one who has seen the curriculum knows that where Æschylus and political economy injure one, late hours and dissipation use up a dozen. Dissipation is a sure destroyer, and every young man who follows it is as the early flower exposed to untimely frost. Those who have been inveigled into the path of vice are named Legion. A few hours sleep each night, high living and plenty of "smashes," make war upon every function of the body. The brains, the heart, the lungs, the liver, the spine, the limbs, the bones, the flesh, every part and faculty are overtasked and weakened by the terrific energy of passions loosened from restraint until, like a dilapidated mansion, the "earthly house of this tabernacle" falls into ruinous decay. Fast young men, right-about!

A Hartford paper thinks it sees a change in public sentiment in regard to what is, when we come to look at it, rather an anomalous state of society. By the unwritten law of this "society," as it terms itself, a man cannot marry a dissolute woman without risking the ostracism and scorn of his friends, and yet a woman may unite herself with the most graceless libertine without reproach or scarcely comment. The paper referred to also observes a growing disposition to hold men to the same standard of virtue which is required of women. Such a change may be dawning upon the minds of men and women, but it is not very apparent as yet, much as it may be desired; and it might even be said to be one of the beatific conditions held in reserve for the millennial period. Yet, after all, there is no ground in reason or common justice why man should be indulged in a less degree of virture than woman, and the society as it is now constituted, whose rigorous code banishes a female for a single false step, and receives in its charmed circle the man who is steeped in debauchery, has certainly something wrong at its foundation. Time, however, works many wonders, and it may yet subject modern society to an equalizing process.

EUROPE REVOLUTIONIZED BY AMERICA.—It may well be a source of pride to this country to think in its great struggle the purest hearts the noblest intellects engaged everywhere in the political life of the old countries of Europe recognized the the justice of the national cause and had faith in its success. America justified that faith, and rewarded it. Like Orlando, she wrestled well and overthrew more than her enemies; for in her own success she overthrew the enemies of freedom in other lands as well. For the second time within a century America revolutionized Europe.—Lippincott's Magazine—English letter.

The Railroad Controversy Again.

And now we have an assertion by the Democratic organ that "Williams has reported and got through the Senate a bill to effectually prevent the west side company from ever getting an extension of their land grant."

This is very cheap and very shallow claptrap. When the land grant was made for a road through the Wallamet valley, (the grant which Holladay has obtained,) it was provided that only one such grant should be made. Besides, this grant already extends for thirty miles on each side of the road, which carries it at all points farther west than the whole line of any road that could be built on the west side of the valley. For more than half the distance the two roads would be but fifteen or twenty miles apart, and for a considerable part of the route they would lie even nearer together than this. It is absurd, therefore, to say that any new grant could be made for the construction of a railroad that would run for the whole distance entirely within the limits of the land grant that another railroad has already obtained. Such a grant, if made, would be entirely valueless. Can it be supposed that capitalists would invest anything in the bonds of a company, based on a land grant which another company has already obtained, and on which that other company has already built a railroad? This is one of the absurdities which is expected to serve for a campaign argument, but which will afterwards be dropped.

But the Herald says that a bill introduced by Senator Corbett (the same one which it asserts was amended by Senator Williams so as to cut the west side company out of an extension of their land grant,) was "simply carrying-out the spirit of the old grant to the company which may have been designated by our Legislature." Very well; what company was designated by our Legislature? The people of the west side counties have not forgotten how they were deprived of this grant. They know that a Republican Legislature first designated the west side company. They know further that the succeeding Legislature, which was Democratic, assumed that the action of the former Legislature was illegal, reversed it, and gave the grant to the east side company. Yet the party that did this now pretends to be the champion of the west side and appeals to the people in those counties for support on that issue. Could impudence and falsehood further go? They took away from the west side its land grant, in spite of the opposition of the Republican members of the Legislature from that section, and now they appeal to the people there to defeat the Republican candidates for the Legislature in order to protect the interests of the west side road! Really there is no limit to the tergiversations of the Democratic politician.

The men who were at Washington last winter as representatives of the west side company knew and admitted that no grant could be had to extend to the head of the Wallamet valley on the west side. They therefore drew up the bill for the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville grant. It was conceded by all that this grant was a valuable one, and that in case it were secured the strife between the east side and west side would cease. Had it been practicable that grant, at the time the bill for it was first introduced, would have been extended to the head of the valley. But it was not; and the real situation was accepted by the representatives of the west side enterprise. It is therefore too late for the Democratic organ to make capital for its party by dwelling on this thing. There is nothing new in it. The case was settled when the Portland, Astoria and McMinnville bill was drawn up, introduced and passed. They who had this done admitted that it was all that could be accomplished, and that no grant, extending up the valley on the west side, and conflicting, as it necessarily would, with the grant already possessed by the other company, would be of any use or value.

A desperate effort is making to complicate these matters and confuse the people upon them, for election purposes; but those interested have only to recall the facts of this controversy as the same have been developed during the last two years, to sift the whole affair and comprehend the real situation.

David Logan.

There is no man in Oregon by whom the Republican party have stood more closely than by David Logan. They have done their best to advance him, and if they have failed, it has been his fault more than theirs. More strenuous exertions have been made for him, especially by the early Republicans of Oregon, than for any other man in the State. They have stood by him through all vicissitudes; though it is but truth to say that he has not always pursued such a course as to justify their devotion to him. He is a man who is governed entirely by his resentments and animosities, and who knows no such thing as gratitude. He would sacrifice all the political principles he ever professed to gratify a personal dislike; and, as it now seems necessary to speak the truth plainly, he has frequently taken this very course. Two years ago he was, for the third time, the Republican candidate for Congress, and men who felt that they had been injured and outraged by him smothered all feeling of hostility and supported him. They supported him because they were true Republicans, and valued the principles of their party too high to permit any sacrifice of them. For what the Republican party has done for Mr. Logan, or tried to do, he now recompenses it by uniting with its enemies in schemes to secure its defeat. Last week he went to Yamhill county on this errand, and held a consultation with Democratic politicians there. He has now gone back to that county to do what else he can to throw it into Democratic hands. His mode of addressing those whom he works upon is to tell them that if the Democratic candidates for the Legislature in that county are elected he will have a chance for the United States Senate. At the same time he knows that it is a silly absurdity to say that any Democratic member of the Legislature would, under any circumstances whatever, vote for him. His object is to defeat the Republican party simply because he is not this year placed at its head, and because he hates some of those who are. We have said all this more in sorrow than in anger. No one has labored more earnestly for Mr. Logan than has the writer of this, and he fears that he is now finding his own observation to confirm the experience of others in regard to him. But it is better that Mr. Logan should appear as an avowed enemy of the Republican party than to be its enemy in disguise. Republicans in Yamhill county know the object of his mission there, and know how to receive him.

Unreasoning Animosity.

The animosities which have been developed in the present campaign, growing out of railroads and politics and a clash of rival interests, probably exceed in bitterness anything before known in Oregon. During the last few days the contest on the part of the Democracy seems to have narrowed down to an attack on "Ben Holladay and his railroad." Enlisted with the politicians in this attack are all men who are jealous of seeing anything done in Oregon which they cannot themselves control. Mr. Holladay no doubt can take care of himself in this fight, though the parties who are assailing him evidently have carried their hostility so far that they would be glad to break down his enterprise and expel him from the State. Many of them, indeed, rave like madmen, and manifestly would feel relieved if they could stop the prosecution of his undertaking and prevent him from building the railroad he has begun.

Yet this enterprise is now almost the only thing which gives vitality to Oregon. Without it there would be no employment for our laboring men. There would be little money in circulation, and every branch of business would feel the depression. It is only truth to say that Mr. Holladay has already done more to wake up Oregon and to make it look like it had a prosperous future than any other man in the State. Who will pretend to gainsay this fact? His investments here are large and very rapidly increasing. All his resources are being concentrated here, and he can only prosper as the country shall prosper. Yet it is represented that he wants to strangle Oregon and to put a check upon the development and prosperity of the State. Are those partisans, who for political and other reasons, real or imaginary, sane when they are led to talk in this way? It is just about as sensible as the assertion made by the Herald, that he was trying to fill up the river below the city, an operation which would prevent his own ships from reaching Portland and cut off his railroad from water communication. It is to be hoped that after the election is over these men will begin to talk with some show of returning reason.

It is urged continually that Mr. Holladay is a dangerous man because he is a capitalist and because he is not a citizen of Oregon. Up to this time we had heard from all sides that the great want of Oregon was capital, and that any man who would come here to invest it should be welcomed. But it appears that all this is changed. Every effort is made to excite public animosity against the greatest enterprise ever undertaken in the State, and to throw discredit upon it. A day or two since there appeared in the Herald some extracts clipped from Eastern papers relative to American railroad bonds in Germany, (which had no connection with Oregon railroads) with comments designed to reflect upon the credit of the securities of this Oregon railroad. It is published as a grave charge against Mr. Holladay that he is not a citizen of Oregon. It is to be supposed, however, that he consults his own taste, convenience and business in remaining a citizen of New York. We believe that the Central Pacific railroad company are not citizens of Oregon, either. Yet the gentlemen who are making so fierce a fight against Mr. Holladay's enterprise seem very anxious to give the control of Oregon to the Central Pacific Company. That great monopoly, one of the greatest in the country, which already own two States absolutely and which is reaching out for further conquests, appears to be the object of their special admiration.

When the present heat and excitement into which men have worked themselves are over, probably there will again be something like sense and reason manifested where only unreasoning denunciation is now heard. Then there will be some hope that those who are working themselves into frenzy through the connection which they are trying to give these matters with politics, so as to gain a party advantage, will evince some signs of reason and judgment in their discussions.

Editorial Notes.

If the people in the southern counties of the State were fully aware of the extent and fury of the attack which the Democrats here are making upon their railroad interests they would most certainly fail to see why they should do anything to support that party or its policy.

The whole uproar that is made at this time about railroad affairs, except in so far as it is stirred up by Democratic politicians for the purposes of the campaign, emanates from a narrow circle of persons who are secret enemies of Senator Williams and would rejoice at his defeat. It is simply campaign rhetoric and that is all.

All that is now being said about Holladay's swallowing up the west side railroad is the same old matter that has been in circulation for a year or two, hashed up and cooked over again. We are to remember, moreover, that it was a Democratic Legislature that enabled him to swallow up a grant that was claimed by the west side.

Mr. Grover in his speech in the southern part of the State explained "equitable adjustment" more fully than he had previously done. He there declared in favor of paying the debt at thirty-five cents on the dollar with legal interest. Thus Mr. Grover would repudiate nearly two-thirds of the debt. He is very nearly on the Fay platform.

We have heard of two or three men who have claimed to be Republicans or to sympathize with the Republican party, whose price is a land grant. Some individuals have been known to sell out for two dollars and a-half, but it takes a land grant to fetch others. The principle however seems to be the same in both cases, and illustrates the old saying that every man has his price.

Mr. W. S. Ladd, it appears, has become a politician and is working in the new "railroad issue" with all his energy. Mr. Ladd is a Democrat, and of course Republicans have no claim upon him. He is working for his interest, and that interest in this case lies in the lands he owns in the Oregon military road land grant. It is well to know the motives of men, and then we can know exactly what they are about.

Fitch of Nevada, who is given as an authority on Oregon affairs by the Democrats here, is well known as a miserable creature without reputation of character. His present owners are the Central Pacific Railroad Company. He is a man who could not get credit in San Francisco for a drink of whisky, and is notoriously for sale for any dirty work that offers itself. Will those who are parading Mr. Fitch as an authority in Oregon affairs inform the public here what became of his wife when he left her standing at the railroad depot in Sacramento and took his departure with a public trull?

Judge Tyler.

Judge Tyler, of San Francisco, made a speech at the court house last evening on the pending political issues. We should do the Judge great injustice were we to undertake to give this morning a report purporting to be his speech or even a full synopsis of it. He spoke for over two hours, and his speech would fill an entire page of this paper. He reviewed something of the history of the political parties of the country, showing how the Democracy were responsible for the late rebellion, that they did what they could while it was in progress to cripple the Union armies, and to enlarge the debt; and that now, they proposed to repudiate it; or, to "equitably adjust" it. He said that $450,000,000 of the bonds are invested in savings banks, and in various trusts—the property of men of moderate means. Three fourths of all of them are in the hands of innocent holders after having passed through 2d, 3d and up to 15th or 50th hands. How can "equitable adjustment" be effected with all these holders? "Equitable adjustment," as the Democracy propose it, is utterly an impossibility—the merest ridiculous nonsense and clap-trap—if it means only adjustment. The real meaning of the phrase is repudiation.

In regard to the Constitutional amendments, he said that the negro by his services and loyalty during the war, showed that he could be trusted as a citizen. The 14th Amendment gave him only citizenship, and he should have thought it a shame if the Republican party had not given him also the ballot, as it is given him by the 15th Amendment. Those amendments were in accord with the spirit of the age and of the American people. They are now parts of the Constitution, as much as any other clauses of that instrument. The Fifteenth Amendment was but an act of justice to a people who had rendered important services to the Union Government, and had amply proved not only capacity to understand the responsibilities of citizenship, but trustworthiness in the exercise of the elective franchise.

On the Chinese question, he said that the Republican party is not in favor of giving Chinamen the right of suffrage. This he showed by the Burlingame treaty and by the action of Republican members of Congress in the matter of the talked of amendment to the naturalization laws. The clause in the treaty against conferring the right upon Chinamen to become naturalized, was inserted in the U. S. Senate, when that body was almost exclusively Republican, by a vote from which only one Senator dissented. The report against striking out the word white from the naturalization laws was signed by every Republican on the Congressional committee. The treaty under which nearly every Chinaman came to this country, was negotiated by a Democratic administration. Democracy is responsible for opening the door. The Republican party is unanimous in opposition to Chinese suffrage and nine-tenths of them are not in favor of offering any encouragement to the immigration of Chinamen. He thought there was no danger to be apprehended from an undue influx of that people. The rule governing immigration of all people, demand and supply will govern in the case of the Chinamen.

On the railroad question, he explained why the late amendment to the Central Pacific and Oregon Branch railroad is for the best interests of the State of Oregon. He said that the Central Pacific Railroad Co. had a scheme to depart from the original plan of building the California and Oregon railroad to the Oregon boundary to meet the road from Portland. Their plan was to diverge from the original route by way of Siskiyou and Rogue river, to go up the Pitt river valley, thus crossing the Sierra Nevadas, through the Goose Lake country, and thence to re cross the Cascades by way of the Military Road route to Eugene. This would leave Rogue river and Umpqua valleys entirely out in the cold. Their further plan was to run down the Wallamet by way of McMinnville and directly to Astoria, leaving Portland out in the cold. When Senator Williams discovered this to be the scheme of the parties interested in the branch bill, he procured the amendment which makes the terminus at Rogue river, thus heading off a gigantic scheme to gobble the entire railroad interests of Oregon, and to place the State at the mercy of a corporation which has already the State of California in its pocket.

He denied by authority, the charge that amendment was procured by Senator Williams at the instigation of Ben Holladay. Holladay knew nothing of it till it was done.

The speaker urged upon Republicans to stand by and elect their Legislative tickets, and not to defeat them for the purpose of defeating Senator Williams. First, elect their tickets, and then should Senator Williams fully explain and satisfy the people that his action had been for the best, he would have claims upon Republicans; if not, then a Republican Legislature would have it in its power to elect some other Republican and thus save the State the shame of sending a repudiation Democrat to the Senate. Senator Williams' name, as often as mentioned, brought out loud and prolonged applause, and the speaker was very generously cheered throughout. His explanation of the reasons for Senator Williams' action upon the branch bill must have been entirely satisfactory to any but those who were predetermined to oppose him in any event.

Fay at Jacksonville.

Mr. J. D. Fay made a speech at Jacksonville on Saturday evening last, in which he boldly announced his determination to adhere to the principles of his "compulsory disgorgement" letter. He "was not the man to go back on his record, and was highly gratified to find his position so heartily supported by Hon. L. F. Grover." Mr. Grover was present, and appeared highly flattered at Mr. Fay's compliments. Fay denounced in unmeasured terms the fusion ticket in Jackson county. He said the Democrats of that county had taken Owens (candidate for Sheriff on the fusion ticket) from the substratum of Democratic society and warmed him into influence and power and now he was turning to strike a blow at the party. He said Martin (candidate for the Senate) was the "damned spot that would not out," and C. I. Ross was but little better. He then tacked ship, and implored them, one and all, as as they loved their party, to stand by it and defeat its enemies. He wound up by charging the late war upon Col. Baker, and said that but for him and his New York speech favoring war, there would have been none!

STATEMENT.—Recently it was stated in these columns in a local review, that an individual during a fit of the delirium tremens, had wandered away from Westport, and subsisted for 36 days, alone, in the woods where he was found accidentally by a party of Government surveyors. We have learned further particulars of this sad story, from Mr. West himself. It appears that the man was perfectly sober and that he is a respectable man, but unfortunately for him, he had exchanged his pantaloons for the pair of another party, along the river, and was arrested at Westport, and by the officer making the arrest, divested of the clothing of his lower parts. The officer did not return him his own pantaloons for those taken, but left the man without any pants at all. He was sadly ashamed of his condition, and his situation being observed by the mill hands at Westport, with that genuine hospitality and philanthropy for which Westport is known, they dressed the sufferer and he left for the settlements of Nehalem. On his way he was lost, but coming to a land claim unoccupied, he took up quarters in the shanty, and the Westport people, ignorant of his whereabouts or designs, further than to reach Nehalem, never gave the subject a thought, until a party of Mr. West's men found him, some four weeks afterwards, in a deplorable state. He was provided for immediately and is in a fair way to recover. Taken in all its bearings, it was a pretty severe case, and we understand that the public authorities have been consulted in the matter to see what can be done about it. Considerable censure is laid upon the officer for not arresting the man, instead of taking the clothing from his person, if a crime had been committed asking for the interference of law in the case. It was a most lucky escape from death as we understand it.

SACRAMENTO.—Portland, Oregon, has been the most fortunate city in the world in respect to losses by flood and fire, and this being so, what must be said of Sacramento, our sister city in California, with whom we are so soon to be connected by railroad. On the 9th of December, 1862, Sacramento was partly destroyed by a flood of vast proportions from the American river, and following this, on the night of Jan 10th, 1863, the Sacramento river broke loose, and finished the destruction. It was then little thought that Sacramento City would ever come up again. But it has—and as a partial evidence of the prosperity of the place for the past eight years we quote from the Record as follows: "This afternoon the President of the Board of Supervisors, County Auditor and County Treasurer opened the bids advertised for on the 25th day of April last, to surrender bonds issued by Sacramento county for $300,000 stock in the Central Pacific Railroad." Two hundred and five thousand dollars were available for the purpose advertised, and the following amounts tendered: By D. O. Mills & Co., $146,000 for par value; by C. H. Swift, $1,500, and W. H. Mills, $1,500, on similar terms. All were accepted. There are now outstanding of the Railroad bonds $137,500. The sum of $13,500 having been previously redeemed by funds provided for that purpose. There remains in the County Treasury $56,000 over and above the amount of bonds redeemed to-day, which it is thought can now be used for general fund purposes."

THE TELEGRAPH TO WALLA WALLA.—The O. S. N. Company have completed their telegraph to Walla Walla, and that place is now in communication with the world outside. The following congratulatory messages were sent over the wires yesterday:

WALLA WALLA, June 1.

MAYOR GOLDSMITH:—Accept my congratulations on the completion of the telegraph that places the first city of Washington Territory in instant communication with the first city of Oregon, and permit me to hope that it is the forerunner of the railroad that, spanning the Continent, will give new [illegible]

E. STONE, Mayor of Walla Walla.

To this the following reply was sent:

MAYOR E. STONE, Walla Walla:—Your sentiments are reciprocated. May the completion of the telegraph between Walla Walla and Portland tend still further to advance the prosperity and mutual good feeling of both cities, and of your Territory and our State.

B. GOLDSMITH, Mayor of Portland.

The event was celebrated with great eclat in Walla Walla.

FUN AT ORO FINO.—The new Dramatic Company under the management of the Multnomah County Democratic Club, last evening put an old farce, entitled "[illegible]" on the boards at Oro Fino Theatre in this city. The audience was small, [illegible] Jo Teal personated the character, wholly assumed, of "the poor man's friend," and was about as successful in it as he was in his famous speech delivered in this city about one year since, for particulars of which see files of Herald on the morning following that memorable occasion. The balance of the caste was filled up by M. P. [illegible], Master Char. Newell, and others, of whom, as the Herald said yesterday respecting the Pixleys, "the least said the better." As a farce the play was a most decided success, and it will be repeated on the morning of June 6th in matinee by the whole strength of the Repudiation party, in the title of "A Struggle for Office," which will also be a farce, so far as getting the office is concerned—you bet.

[illegible] it was stated in these [illegible] review, that an individual during delirium tremens, had wandered [illegible] and subsisted for 56 days, [illegible] when he was found accidentally [illegible] of Government surveyors. [illegible] Portland, Oregon, has been the [illegible] city in the world in respect to [illegible] and this being so, what [illegible] Sacramento, our sister city in [illegible] whom we are so soon to be connected [illegible] On the 9th of December, 1862, [illegible] destroyed by a flood of vast [illegible] American river, and following [illegible] 10th, 1863, the Sacramento [illegible] finished the destruction. THE TELEGRAPH TO WALLA WALLA.—The O. [illegible] have completed their telegraph to Walla Walla, and that place is now in communication with the world outside. The following [illegible] messages were sent over the wires:

WALLA WALLA, June 1.

[illegible] GOLDSMITH:—Accept my congratulations on the completion of the telegraph that [illegible] city of Washington Territory in [illegible] communication with the first city of Oregon, and permit me to hope that it is the forerunner of the railroad that, spanning the Continent, [illegible] life and activity to both cities.

[illegible] STONE, Mayor of Walla Walla.

[illegible] Mayor Goldsmith dispatched the following happy response:

PORTLAND, June 1, 1870.

[illegible] Stone, Walla Walla:—Your sentiments reciprocated. May the completion of the telegraph between Walla Walla and Portland [illegible] to advance the prosperity and good feeling of both cities, and of your [illegible] and our State.

[illegible] GOLDSMITH, Mayor of Portland.

[illegible] was celebrated with great eclat in Walla Walla.

[illegible] ORO FINO.—The new Dramatic Company under the management of the Multnomah County Democratic Club, last evening put an old [illegible] entitled "Keep it Before the People," upon [illegible] Oro Fino Theatre in this city. The [illegible] was small but was very demonstrative. [illegible] personated the character, wholly assumed, [illegible] "the poor-man's friend," and was about as [illegible] as he was in his famous speech [illegible] in this city about one year since, for [illegible] of which see Oregon Herald on the [illegible] following that memorable occasion. The [illegible] of the caste was filled up by M. P. Bull, [illegible] Chas. Nowell, and others, of whom, as the [illegible] said yesterday respecting the Pixleys, [illegible] "the better." LOCAL REVIEW.—The river at the Dalles has receded some inches. Still slowly rising here.

There will be a session of the U. S. District Court to-day.

The Government horses, to be inspected, will be here to-day.

James Shea received his final admission to citizenship yesterday, in the U. S. Court.

Three assault and battery cases and two d. d.'s, were tried before Recorder Anderson yesterday.

The California will sail punctually as advertised, and the mails will close half an hour before departure.

The Washington Guard will meet at their Armory at seven o'clock this morning, sharp, to proceed on the picnic.

A runaway horse was caught by Mr. Tuttle in this city last evening, and no one appearing to claim it was taken to the Union stables on First street, where the owner can call to receive his property.

Mr. O'Meara will speak at the Court House this evening. To-morrow evening J. F. Caples will speak at the same place, and on Saturday evening Hon. J. H. Mitchell will address the people from the same stand.

Our worthy young friend, Samuel I. N. Gilman, for six years past, clerk for Mr. A. B. Richardson, has been taken as partner in the business with Mr. Richardson. We trust they may both live many years, to transact successful business together and accumulate a handsome fortune to be added to their present valuable reputation as public spirited citizens and men of true integrity.

EXCURSION PARTY.—Yesterday Judge H. D. Caton and wife, of Illinois; Hon. Allan Francis and daughter, of Victoria; Major S. Francis, wife and Mrs. H. L. Pittock, of this city, returned from an excursion over the line of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company to Celilo. They left the city on Tuesday morning by the steamer Cascade, were met at the lower Cascade by the train of cars for the upper Cascade, at which place they took the fine side wheel steamer Oneonta, a perfect palace, for Dalles City. Reaching the Dalles at five o'clock in the evening, they were informed that by order of Mr. S. G. Reed, acting President of the Company, sent ahead by telegraph, a locomotive had been placed at their disposal for the trip through to Celilo. The kind offices of Mr. Reed were accepted, and on the party sped to Celilo, which place, fifteen miles distant from the Dalles, with all its improvements for the navigation of the river was visited; and the party returned to the Oneonta for the trip home again yesterday, where they arrived as above indicated, highly delighted with their pleasant excursion, through a region of the Pacific slope which no Eastern person should fail to see before returning to "the States."

SPICED SALMON.—Messrs. H. W. Corbett & Co. have placed upon our table an article of spiced salmon, put up by John West & Co., of Westport, which is to create a furore in the Chicago and other markets in the East. Preparations are being made for sending thousands of pounds of this article East. The cans are as handsomely put up in spruce boxes as any article of oysters or of chickens which we were in receipt of here in Oregon formerly when we depended upon other countries for a part of our subsistence.

CAUTION.—A gentleman living on Main street who has lost his MORNING OREGONIAN with great regularity for the past several months, promises to publish the names of his robbers, for the benefit of the community, if they do not desist from stealing the paper. His opinion as to who the parties are is backed by an absolute knowledge. No humbug about that.

AN IRISH.—Yesterday a gentleman applied to us for a copy of the Democratic State platform. We turned over a file of papers including copies of the Herald, and strange as it may seem, that paper did not contain it. Has the Herald at last "thrown off" upon its own party platform,—is it afraid to print the document.

SPEAKING AT HILLSBORO.—Hon. J. S. Wilson arrived in this city yesterday, from the Southern part of the State. He will meet Mr. Slater at Hillsboro to-day, closing the canvass there.

SPEAKING AT MILWAUKIE.—Mr. Johnson will speak at Milwaukie to-day at three o'clock, instead of two P. M., as announced yesterday morning.

The Latest Dodge.

The Herald of this morning says the latest dodge is "to humbug Good Templars into voting for the Radical ticket," and a good deal more of such claptrap. "The latest dodge" was inaugurated by the emissaries of the party with which the Herald affiliates by circulating lying reports about prominent Good Templars, thereby carrying out their "time honored principle" that "the end justifies the means." And as they have not made anything by the operation the Herald wants to father another dirty trick of theirs on the opposite party. When the time comes for Good Templars to make their influence felt in the political parties of the day, they will do so without any aid from the emissaries of either party, and until such time arrives they will exercise their right to vote for such men as will do no injury to the cause they advocate. E. W. R.

Portland, June 1, 1870.

Tom Suckey Again.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

The "Tom Suckey" affair, of which some of the opposition have tried to make so much, is the subject of a statement published in the Salem Press, and signed by W. M. Smith and Gilbert Munden. That their statement is an entire falsehood is proved by the fact that the affair took place the next day after the fight and whilst the regiment was moving forward to water, instead of before that event, as they assert. The whole thing alleged by them is ridiculous and untrue. The quality of these stories may be judged by the fact that their authors have gone so far as to assert that Gen. Palmer instigated the Whitman massacre, connived at the death of Col. Gilliam, and perpetrated other atrocious crimes!

J. S. RINEARSON,
JOS. MAGONE.

Our friend, Mistress Major Walker, M. D., is really not without a touch of Don Quixote in her nature. It is now reported that, upon a railway at the South-West, she boldly seated herself in the smoking-car. Therein was one Charles Meier of Terrebonne, La., enjoying his cigar. To him, with all her dignity of manner, said the Major:

"Sir, I wish you to throw away that cigar. I wish to learn you better manners than to smoke in the presence of a lady."

The Terrebonne gentleman continuing, the Major proceeded to military measures; invaded him (so to speak,) and snatching the cigar from his mouth threw it from the car. Just then a Texan lighted his pipe. Mrs. Major, emboldened by the success of her first maneuver, moved upon the Texan; but the Texan, taking warning from the fate of Terrebonne gentleman's cigar, placed himself in position, with his pipe well covered, and cried out that, as this was a smoking-car, he should throw himself upon his vested rights, and puff at pleasure. This bold front was not without its effect. Mrs. Major retreated in good order, and in some confusion left the smoking car altogether. If we hear of her making a raid upon any tobacco shop in any part of this extensive Republic, the interesting fact shall be duly reported.

An additional lot of those handsome suits worn by everybody, both heavy and light weight, was received by Kohn & Fishel, No. 91 Front street. They are equal to the best custom-made and pleasing to all men that wear them. They also received an extra fine lot of striped calico shirts and Star white shirt.

Their stock in clothing is the largest and finest in Oregon and sold at extreme low prices.

B. L. Stone gets new supplies of Jewelry, Watches, Chains, Clocks, Silver Plate, Spoons, Butter Knives, Napkin Rings, &c., &c., by every steamer, which he proposes to sell so cheap that no one need be without those articles.

Infection in the Air.

Experimental chemists have repeatedly analyzed the air at unhealthy seasons, in the hope of detecting the invisible virus which produces epidemic disease. They have not yet discovered it, and scarcely any two of them agree as to its nature. This is of little consequence. It is sufficient to know that this poisonous principle exists, and that a safeguard against its insidious influence has been provided. In the spring and early summer, when fever and ague, remittent fever and other periodical diseases of that class are prevalent, it is only necessary to fortify the system with a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters to escape them. If this precaution has been neglected, which it never ought to be in any district liable to such visitations, and if the paroxysms of malarious fever have actually commenced, they may always be checked and broken up by a course of that powerful vegetable tonic and alterative. Quinine was once considered the only specific for chills and fevers; but it is now generally admitted that this nauseous alkaloid is a dangerous medicine, and that its secondary effects are more to be dreaded than any form of intermittent fever. It is simply a tremendous astringent. It does not touch the disordered liver, or regulate the bowels, or in any way improve the condition of the animal fluids. Hostetter's Bitters, on the other hand, in addition to being a better and safer tonic than any preparation of quinine, has a balsamic effect upon the whole system. It is aperient and anti-bilious, as well as directly invigorating, and purifies the secretions as well as regulates the secretive organs. It stimulates the appetite, strengthens the stomach, soothes the nerves, promotes healthful perspiration, and induces quiet sleep. As a stomachic it has no rival. Cases of indigestion that no other tonic seems capable of alleviating, are cured in a few weeks by its regular use.

STEAM POWER, NOS. 626 AND 631 FRONT ST.

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

Anecdote of Gen Halleck

[illegible] an anecdote of Gen Halleck the former [illegible] of our country When Halleck went to school at West Point he was pretty much what he is now ponderous slow working slow speaking crammed sensitive jealous obstinately self conceited old prematurely of knowledge, with a brain as full and as cold as a corporation ice-house He was the wonder of all [illegible] boys and the butt of all sprightly ones Amongst his classmates was one named Kingsbury a nervous prompt, agile [illegible] fellow who was afterward chief of artillery in one of the great corps of the Army of the Potomac At West Point there was a debating society of the bigger boys where essays were read and then criticised by a board of three censors One night Halleck appeared before this society with a ponderous paper which as nearly as I can recollect was a military criticism upon the artillery practice of Nebuchadnezzar at the seige of Babylon and an inquiry into the possibility of reviving the Trojan horse as a portion of the modern cavalry organization Young Brains, (afterwards Old Brains) is said on this occasion to have slung together more dull thoughts and long words and to have read them with more self importance than Moses correcting the proofs of the ten tables of stone When he had finished and the censors began their work Kingsbury who had a tongue like a leaf of nettles and a sincere contempt for Halleck's grave imbecility proceeded to cut up Young Brains's article which he pronounced to be indescribable bosh

The rage of Halleck was excessive but having no agility of speech he was obliged to defer until another time a chance to get even so he went to his quarters and hunted out a blistering extract which he quietly stored away in his head and when Kingsbury the next evening proceeded to criticise some portion of the exercise Young Halleck arose and said

"The gentleman who has just afflicted us reminds me of a poem, which I have somewhere read and happened accidentally to bring to mind and it is to the following effect

> Whatever wise men said or saw
> To them retorted a vain jack-daw
> Whose sole remark was caw caw caw

Hardly had Halleck taken his seat delighted to have had a chance to get off this extract, which he had so carefully learned when Kingsbury was up like a rocket

"Mr President" he said "I also am reminded accidentally of a quotation which I have read somewhere and it is this

> "When dunces come to grow satiric,
> We take their words for panegyric

The roar of laughter which followed this prompt retort made the sweat run off the weather boarding of Old Brains like the drippings from an ice house —Don Piatt in the Cincinnati Commercial

Lithofracture

The Missouri Republican describes at length the experiments made by the Directors of the American Iron Mountain company under the supervision of Mr James Harrison in blasting ore with the newly invented material called "lithofracture

"Two holes were drilled into the ore one being twelve inches and the other twenty five inches deep were charged each with two pounds lithofracture which has the softness of dough and can be found in any shape After the fuse had been inserted and every precautionary measure taken the charge was exploded The result attained was extraordinary every one present agreed that the shock produced was almost too violent, as about twenty two tons of ore were scattered in every direction and part of it ground to dust

Mr Schantz's next experiment was to demonstrate that it is unnecessary to drill holes into the material to be blasted He took a block of ore containing about seventy eight cubic feet and weighing in the neighborhood of sixteen tons placing three and a half pounds lithofracture on its surface While charging this block Mr Schantz was quietly smoking his cigar in order to prove the complete safety of the material It should be stated here that lithofracture is not explosive when it is placed in contact with fire but only explodes in [illegible] with the [illegible] cartridge

Upon lighting the fuse a tremendous explosion took place completely breaking the block into small pieces, so it could be loaded into wagons and taken to the furnace This experiment exceeded the expectations of every one present and it was amusing to witness the astonishment depicted on the faces of the miners, who could not be convinced before that it was possible to break such a mass of iron ore without previously drilling holes

GEN SCOTT AND PIERRE SOULE —The Cleveland Herald relates that soon after Pierre Soule's return to to this country he was dining at Willard's in Washington when Gen Scott entered and took a seat near but neither recognized the other Soule hastily concluded his dinner and left the room and to a gentleman who referred upon the occurrence Gen Scott said

"Sir he knew [illegible] the Ostend Conference and the [illegible] and the traitors to the country and to all its enemies to speak to me I could hardly avoid speaking to him but if I had the [illegible] would have great [illegible] harshly in his ears I am [illegible] My [illegible] its arms when my country is at war but I have always [illegible] and I have been [illegible] Soule [illegible] he has been trying to plunge [illegible] into war If he had seen as much [illegible] horrors of war as I have [illegible] but he must know enough of them to [illegible] him in the paths [illegible] were [illegible] ready advocate [illegible] the country

Mr S [illegible] wished to purchase a farm [illegible] ford Oh but the price was exorbitant A girl discovered [illegible] a swamp on the farm and secretly imparted the knowledge to Mr S [illegible] Mr [illegible] bought the farm When Mr S [illegible] moved into the house he found [illegible] in the cellar a drain leading to the swamp and near the drain a barrel which had contained petroleum but the contents of which had at that time merely left their tracks in passing from the barrel to the drain Mr S has not yet commenced boring oil

Dying Hard

[illegible] COLORED [illegible] PERSONS [illegible]

The Baltimore city railroad companies have put cars on their tracks in which colored people [illegible] the [illegible] their [illegible] the [illegible] Madison [illegible] with the [illegible] regular intervals [illegible] this car

[illegible] persons who pre[illegible] the [illegible] apart for the colored [illegible] passengers [illegible] the [illegible] streets with all [illegible] passengers as were [illegible] One of our reporters spent an hour on the corner of Baltimore and Eutaw streets observing the result of the first day's experiment

There were as many white passengers in the cars to which colored people were admitted as in other cars There was not more than four colored persons in any one of the [illegible] cars and in most of them there were only one or two but the full complement of passengers was made up by white people In very few instances did passengers hesitate to take the first car that came along, utterly regardless and possibly unconscious of the red lettered label

It was astonishing during the early portion of yesterday morning to watch the antics of those few persons who objected to riding in the cars devoted to the colored people On Madison avenue ladies and gentlemen would carefully peer into the cars and if no person of color was there ensconsed in they would jump but [illegible] praying that they might not be disturbed by the entrance of a colored man woman or child One lady who had entered a car at the corner of Madison and B[illegible] streets, chanced to sit herself beside a man whose complexion indicated that he was not pure Caucassian The lady squirmed for a while and at last being unable to retrain her passion almost screamed into the man's ear "Why don't you get into the car devoted to persons of your color?

The man fairly bounded from his seat so terrific was the screech given and for a moment seemed to be lost in thought regarding the sanity of the lady He finally managed to say "Am I not in the right" To which she replied "No you're not colored persons ride in a special car to-day and this car is for white persons" The affrighted man now regained his composure and said "Madame I am resident of Charleston South Carolina and can boast of as good family perhaps as you can and perhaps if you knew my name you would be more careful in future how you find fault with persons whose complexions are a shade darker than yours" The lady called upon the conductor to stop the car and quitted it with the feelings experienced by a person who has committed a mean action and been exposed

Several of the conductors when they had been informed that their cars had been set apart for the accommodation of colored persons, refused to take charge of them and resigned their positions Their situations did not remain idle many minutes as there are plenty of men who are happy to get an opportunity of earning $21 per week and who did not object to collect fare from a man because his complexion did not resemble Parian marble

The remarkable advantages possessed by Wisconsin for manufacturing in its great water power its timber lead iron and copper has aroused the people to a sense of their importance At a recent meeting in Milwaukee it was resolved that it is expedient to organize a State Industrial Association for the purpose of fostering our home industries and resisting the efforts of the free trade party to alter, amend or repeal our present tariff laws with the purpose of breaking down and destroying our home manufactures

FINANCE AND COMMERCE

PORTLAND Tuesday June 1 1870

No gold quotations to-day

Legal Tenders steady at 87½@88¼c

There is no change to note in the jobbing merchandise market

PRODUCE—The receipts of flour from up the river for the past few days have been considerable and the supply now on hand seeking shipment is beyond the capacity of the steamer to sail to-morrow Several shippers have lots on hand which they would be glad to send at once, but which must wait another opportunity Prices are as heretofore quoted

The Willamette Farmer of the last date has the following in regard to wool We desire to call the especial attention of our readers to the state of the wool market Whilst other commodities of the farm have been and are steadily declining in price this natural staple of the country has maintained itself in a falling market Indeed it has rather gained in price over last year there being a large proportion of this year's clip for which [illegible] cents per pound are offered than there was last year The steadiness of the market price for wool is one of the most unmistakable signs that wool raising is one of our most reliable branches of husbandry and a sure guaranty that investments for wool growing purposes if wisely made and steadily attended to, will pay It must not be overlooked that the heavy fleeced sheep pay the best for there is more encouragement for the best wool than for the medium in our market at present

The crops throughout the State are represented to be in most excellent condition and we never had a more promising prospect for a large yield With the additional prospect of an unusually large yield from the mines the present season the people have reason to anticipate better times next fall than they have had for years Along with the general prosperity of the State or the merchants of this city may expect a lively trade during the latter part of the summer and the fall The prospect generally is cheering

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

The Union Republican party of Oregon in Convention assembled makes the following declaration of its principles and policy

1st Unfaltering devotion to the Union first last and forever and unwavering fidelity to the Constitution and its amendments and to the laws of our National Legislature

2d We wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of President Grant as carrying into practical application the principles for which we have successfully striven And we particularly commend those points in his Inaugural Address wherein he declares "let it be understood that no repudiator of one farthing of our public debt will be trusted in public places and it will go far towards strengthening a credit which ought to be the best in the world and I would protect the law abiding citizen whether of native or foreign birth wherever his rights are jeopardized or the flag of our country floats and I will have a policy to enforce against the will of the people

3d We have confidence that the Administration will wisely and firmly protect the interests and sustain the dignity of the Nation in respect to our foreign relations and especially with regard to our just claims against Great Britain

4th We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime and the national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the uttermost good faith to all creditors at home or abroad not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted And for this purpose we favor a strict economy in the Administration of the National Government and the application to such payment of all surplus revenue from whatever sources derived and that taxation should be equalized and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit

5th We make no distinction between citizens, whether of foreign or native birth and that we sympathise now and ever with men of all nations in their striving for self government

6th That we are opposed to any change in our naturalization laws which shall admit to citizenship any foreigners not [illegible] thereto under said laws

7th We favor a judicious system of railroad and river improvements in Oregon in order to develop our resources and invite settlement of our unoccupied territory and for this purpose insist that Congress should make its liberal grants of aid

8th We are in favor of a tariff for revenue with such discriminations in favor of our domestic manufactures as will not diminish its efficiency for the purposes of revenue

9th We favor universal amnesty to the people of the States lately in rebellion who have not yet received full citizenship in the [illegible]

10th We are in favor of securing the means of education and [illegible] any diversion of the common school funds of this State to any other purpose than the support of common schools

11th We recognize in the Union Republican party the measures and men who saved the government from destruction and that its continuance in power is the only sure safeguard to national peace and prosperity And with this platform we appeal to the voters of Oregon for their suffrages and support

SELUCIUS GARFIELDE

Republican Platform

Adopted by the Republican Territorial Convention at Vancouver April 21st 1870

Resolved That the Republicans of Washington Territory are in full accord with the great Republican party of the Nation the party that maintained and carried the Government through the most powerful and gigantic rebellion known in history notwithstanding the aid and assistance rendered by enemies abroad and traitors at home the party that successfully triumphed over the arms of the rebels at the South that removed the foul blot from the national escutcheon that disgraced us in the eyes of the civilized world that sustained our financial credit beyond the hopes of the most sanguine that has shown a magnanimity and forbearance to the vanquished that challenges the admiration of mankind and that ever true to the best interests of the people has opened a highway for the interchange of products of the Eastern and Western portions of the continent that will long be marked as one of the wonders of the age

Resolved That we regard the administration of President Grant as eminently successful, that the difficult questions which were presented by the anomalous condition of eleven States at the close of the rebellion have been settled in accordance with the soundest principles of justice and political economy and we confidently look for a speedy harmonious and perfect restoration of the constitutional relations between all the States and the General Government

Resolved That the management of the finances by the Legislative and Executive branches of the Government by the present Administration has been wise prudent and careful and we refer with pride and pleasure to the fact that no financial convulsions have occurred that the credit of the Government has been sustained and that the relative value of specie and paper currency has approximated as rapidly as was consistent with the safety of our commercial and financial affairs

Resolved That the [illegible] and unflinching position assumed by the Administration in regard to the Alabama claims has already produced the most salutary results which are evidenced not only by the manifest desire of Great Britain to reopen negotiations but by a willingness to conduct them in conformity with recognized principles of international law

Resolved That the National and Territorial Governments should be conducted in all their branches with the most rigid economy that the necessaries of life should as far as practicable be exempt from direct or indirect taxation and that we are opposed to repudiation in any form believing that the honor of the nation is of more importance than any pecuniary consideration

Resolved That we earnestly urge upon the National Government the speedy settlement of our right to the San Juan and other Islands lying between the Canal De Haro and Rosario Straits and the acknowledgement by Great Britain of our just claims thereto and the importance of opening negotiations for the purpose of securing the annexation of British Columbia to the United States

Resolved That the North Pacific Railroad and its branches is a work of national importance hence we call upon the General Government for the most liberal aid and assistance to secure its early construction and completion

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases of years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of early indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life [illegible] in this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents, guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible destroying maladies see that they are cared for and cured before it is too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his specialty for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats monomania and frequently insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that the was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon, stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1867 and 1868 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibit ng bogus titled certificates, pretended patient's letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
